School Council Bring and Buy Sale

School council would like to remind everyone that next Friday 18th January there will be a bring and buy sale in the New Build. For this to happen we will need toys, games, books and DVDs in good condition – not dirty or damaged. The donations need to be brought into school no later than Thursday 17th January. The toys can be purchased on the day for 20p, 50p and a £1 and there is a limit of £2 to spend. All profits will go in to the school council funds.

Church of England Benefice of Upper Tas Valley

Messy Church is for all the family – with Bible themed art and crafts, drama, singing and snacks*!

Themes for Winter and Spring 2019:
February 9th – Loving our neighbour
March 9th – Messy Lent
April 13th – Messy Easter

All welcome (children need to bring along an adult!)

Please let us know if you are coming: 01953 788227
Or ldavey@btinternet.com Don't get to dress for mess!

*Donations of £2.50 per head would be welcome to help with the cost of craft materials and refreshments.

Wymondham Cluster Athletics On Monday 7 and Tuesday 8 January Wreningham School entered the cluster athletics competition. All the children competed in a circuit of events including triple jumps, 5 strides, vertical jump, standing long jump, speed bounce, bean bag throw and chest push. We finished with sprint races and a group relay.

We did really well – Y5/6 boys and girls, and Y3/4 girls, won, qualifying for the South Norfolk finals. Y3/4 boys came third overall. Well done to all the children and Mr Hodge. Report by Rylan and Charlie.

STARS OF THE WEEK!
