Summer Term

Welcome back to school, it's lovely to see all the children and hear all about their Easter holidays. We also wanted to note that the Egg Drop Challenge at the end of last term was a huge success, it was cracking!!

This term we are looking forward to welcoming parents back into the school for more face to face activities, keys activities to note over the next week are:

Wed – 27th April - Class 1 & 2 parents are invited to come into school to hear about the new phonics system. 9am in the school hall.

Thurs 28th April - Class 2 we will be holding a Reading Café. This is an opportunity for you to work with your child in school. We will be holding the Café in the class room at 13:45.

Thurs 28th April - Classes 3 and 4 - the class rooms will be open from 3:15-3:45 for parents/carers to look at the children's work.

Reminder

We would like to remind all parents and carers that we are a nut free school.

Covid Update – We currently have no cases of Covid in school.

School Uniform

From Sunday 24th April to Sunday 1st May all orders placed will receive a 15% discount when using code SPRING15
www.brigade.uk.com/parents/

A flyer will follow, but we would like to let you know that we will be hosting a number of activities this term to raise money for the Ukraine Crisis.

Help!

Do we have any tradesmen or women within the school community? Over the Summer Holidays we will be having some essential work carried out in class 1, and we would be interested to hear from you! Please email the school office for more info.

From Monday Class 4 children will start to tidy up the nature trail at lunch times. Can the children from this class please bring in gardening gloves and welly boots please. Thank you!
